

David L. Houle

November 15, 1984 - November 23, 2018

Mid-morning on Friday November 23rd, David Houle passed away in a room so full of friends, family and love, they could all barely fit. He had just turned 34 years old and had been courageously battling cancer for the last 18 months.

David was born in Wilmington, DE, November 15, 1984. He was a graduate of Salesianum High School in 2003 where he excelled in both football and lacrosse. He spent every summer at Lake Winnepesaukee with friends and family and his love of New Hampshire made it an easy choice when choosing Plymouth State as his alma mater. He graduated in 2007 with a Bachelor's degree in Business and Marketing.

David is survived by countless friends and family and each had their own tailored relationship with "Hoolio". Among those that will miss him most are his fiancé Jordan Feeney of Dover, his parents Lawrence and Dorothy Houle of Alton, his sisters Debbie Burris and Laura Squier of Dover, his cousin and "best man" Jeff Hertel of Alton, his niece, nephew and many aunts, uncles and cousins. Additionally, his dog Grizzly, cat Mona, and of course, his golfing partners and members of all 5 of his fantasy football leagues are going to miss his big smile and bigger laugh.

David was a proud employee at Sig Sauer for the past 5 years. Up until his last week, his job, coworkers and clients were among his top priorities. His coworkers include so many of his friends - his tireless commitment to his job, positive attitude and dedication will be something that cannot be replaced.

Jordan and David fit a lifetime of adventure and laughs into their time together. David proposed to Jordan on February 17th at Rye Beach. They soon after adopted their dog Grizzly and spent as much time as possible doting on their "little family". In between work and doctor appointments, they traveled, frequented local restaurants, snowmobile trails and cruises around lake Winnie. They swam, hiked, stayed at bed and breakfasts, sunned on the beach and planned date nights for each other. In his last days, David made sure to share with nurses that she was the love of his life and he knew she felt the same.

Viewing hours will begin at 10am with services following at noon at Wiggin-Purdy-McCooley-Dion Funeral Home on Thursday, December 6 with a celebration of life at Cocheco Country Club to follow.

In lieu of flowers, please make any donations in his name to Second Chances Animal Rescue in Mississippi, where David and Jordan adopted Grizzly. Donate through PayPal:

“ I met Dave or Houlio as I called him in 2008 at eCoast and we quickly became friends. Even though I am 22 years older than Dave it didn't matter. We had a lot of great times and ofcourse even more laughs. I lost my brother Neil in 2009 and now I lost another one in Dave. It hurts so much to lose him and I am so glad we had lunch together a short time before. Great conversation and laughter. As much as it rips my heart out to lose such a great friend I know my life is better because he was a part of it. My wife Susie and I will forever miss his pop in visits. Saturday morning I sat at my kitchen table staring out the window at the walkway hoping to see hm coming up the walk, through my tears and in my mind I could see his smiling face. Daave will always live on in our hearts.

“ While I didn't meet David, I am awed by the depth and magnitude of love that he engendered in all who have left tributes. My deepest sympathies to David's parents, fiancée, family, and friends.

“ I met David just once but he made lasting impression. I'd stopped by the Houles to return some little thing and happened upon the whole family assembled for his tiny niece's baptism. I was feeling a bit awkward, but right away this really tall guy, quite a presence, stepped forward and drew me in with a welcome and his warmth. He put me, whom he'd never before met, at ease.

Here it is, seven(?) years later, and I still clearly remember what he did for me that day.

“ Enjoyed Thanksgiving on Richards Ave . with the Feeney's and Dave , as well . We all did arts & crafts and Dave and I were so bad at it . Enjoyed his company the few times our paths crossed . Dave was easy to be around and very easy to converse with . He will be missed by us all .

“ I was lucky enough to spend a week in Alaska fishing with Dave and other work colleagues a couple years ago. It was the first time I was able to spend extended time with Dave and really get to know him. There are memories of that trip that I will never forget. Laughs, jokes, just a great time had by all. I always enjoyed the time I was able to spend with Dave in person or by phone. While work was the reason we met, I definitely feel I gained a friend. Dave was always cheerful, a hard worker, and a pleasure to work with.

He will be immensely missed by all of us that had the opportunity to know and work with him.

“ The night I met Dave was pivotal for him - but not because he met me, it's because he met my sister. We were out in Portsmouth in May 2014 and she was supposed to be my wing woman, but the second she and Dave locked eyes they were magnets. Dave met the love of his life that night, and watching he and Jordan's love grow ever since has been nothing short of inspiring. They laughed hard, loved hard, and worked hard on being the best versions of themselves. They were present in their relationship and knew that the little things were the most important things. What Dave didn't realize was that dating my older sister meant that he inherited a little one, but he embraced our crazy dynamic like a champ. He seamlessly slipped into the role of my big brother, always patient as I read a whole text conversation so that he could offer me dating advice, always whipping up the best homemade pizza for girl's nights, and naming me the unofficial godmother of their pup. I'll always slice the brownies early for you, brother. I can feel that there is a 2XL-sized hole left in many hearts right now, but I'm so grateful for Dave for showing me through loving my sister how a heart should be treated in the first place.

“ I have been friends with Jordan for years, as soon as she told me about Dave and I saw her eyes light up I knew I had to meet him! When I finally did, I fell in love with him too. There is noway anyone could meet him and not love him, he was perfect in every way. His smile and laugh lit up a room, his presence was absolutely contagious and magnetic. I was so happy Jordan found her soulmate and I feel honored to have watched their love grow throughout the years, it is so true they made a lifetime of memories in the short time they had and he will be forever missed, and forever remembered <3

“ Tom and I are family friends and have known Jordan since the day she was born. We love her like one of our own. We only had the pleasure of meeting Dave once, but quite an impression was made. We could just feel the love and see the love between both Jordan and Dave. We just knew, he was going to be the one. Tom's words exactly; "he is the real deal".

Jordan, sharing your sadness and sending you comforting hugs. You were Dave's angel here on earth and the love of his life. Dave is now your angel in heaven, watching over you sweet girl.

Mr and Mrs Houle, we are so sorry for your precious loss. We feel blessed to have met Dave, such a fine young man. It is truly a mark of wonderful parents.

Keeping all of you in our prayers to bring comfort and strength in the days head.

With deepest sympathy,
Tom and Debbie Geiler

“ I had the pleasure and honor of working with Houlie for a number of years at eCoast Marketing. He was one of a kind with a heart as big as he was and a laugh that was infectious. I will always remember him and I'm shocked to hear of his loss. My love and thoughts go out to his family, friends and Jordan. Long may you run, Dave. “ This brings me great sadness hearing this. Love you Dave! You Will always be in the hearts of everyone who had the pleasure of being in your presence. I had the honor of running behind Dave at Salesianum High School in football. I was running back and he was our stud tackle. I will never forget those rides with you and Thomas blaring some Nappy Roots. What an honor to be able to have known you since grade school. Love you Dave. My deepest sympathies to your family, friends and your wife. You will always live in the hearts of us all!
